Superintendent's Highlights

Avery School District #394 Avery, Idaho established the goal of having all of our staff certified in technology to include our teacher aides.

Goal 2 was to have a computer in every home to support the school technology program, by June 1999. Computers were donated by 2 different banks and were updated by our staff and installed by our staff in children's homes. District owned lap top computers were also checked out so each student would have a computer over the summer.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1998-99 Goals	Progress
Technology training for Certified staff and teacher aides.	75% of staff certified as of June 30, 1999
Computer in every home of children attending school in District #394	Completed June 15 th 1999
